

ALL OVER ARIZONA.

Late News From Every Corner of the Territory.

Scott White received a letter today from Allen English dated 28th ult. at New York. He did not state when he would leave that city for home. Mr. and Mrs. English were in good health and taking much enjoyment in the metropolis of the United States.—Tombstone Prospector.

According to the Belt, Globe is to have a baby gauge road, about four miles in length, from Globe to the mines in Lost Gulch. We hope it will be built. It shows what the Globe district is, one of the richest and most extensive on earth. The more Globe booms the better it is for the people of this valley.

Packard station, on the A. & S. E. railroad, is about to assume a wonderful change. A new store and several saloons will grace the town soon, and from the very best authority we learn that the new road to be built by the Copper Queen company to their works at Nacozari will start from Packard, so that will make it the junction city, and town lots will soon be in good demand.

W. T. Richards was indicted by the grand jury, in session last week in Graham county, for embezzlement. He was taken into custody Tuesday and gave bonds for his appearance in court when wanted. The case grows out of a business relationship between W. B. Ponda and Richards, two or three years ago. Ponda was agent for the White Sewing Machine company and employed Richards for his salesman, and he, it is claimed, never accounted for all the money received on sales.

John P. Martin, the Ohio capitalist who has lately bonded several mines in the Warren mining district, is about to commence active operations upon the claims now bonded by him. He has abundance of capital behind him and proposes to show up these properties in good earnest. We wish you good luck, Mr. Martin, and only wish we had a few more men like you to develop the wonderful mining resources of the Warren mining district.—Bisbee correspondence of the Tombstone Prospector.

Prof. Wetmore has another storm bill for the near future. It is expected to swipe Tucson on or between the 10th and 12th instant. And a regular Klondyke may be looked for between the 25th and 27th. It may be noted that Prof. Wetmore has entire control of weather management. Hon. Sam Hughes having retired, W. H. Wheaton, on the lower San Pedro also has a prophetic weather eye, but as he missed his cue on the present season being a dry one, his forecasts are to be received with at least a shade of suspicion.—Tucson Citizen.

A letter from a gentleman at Minas Prietas, who has been in Mexico for several years, does not give the Yaqui river country a very glowing set-off. He writes: "Now for you, famous Rio Yaqui. It is a good country—to stay out of. Nine-tenths of what you hear about it and read is made from whole cloth. As for the wonderfully rich gold, silver and copper mines, so much talked of, you can depend on it there are no such properties in all Sonora. There are too many sharp business men here from all parts of the United States and Europe to let such properties go to a beggar for a purchaser.—Lordsburg Liberal.

The grand jury of Graham county returned an indictment, with its final report, on Tuesday, against James Langerman, justice of the peace of Morenci precinct, whom they charge with presenting a fraudulent and illegal demand to the board of supervisors against the county for fees. The indictment charges six fraudulent items of five dollars each in misdemeanor cases, on several dates in July, 1897, from the 10th to the 13th. Langerman gave bonds for his appearance at the next term of court. It is claimed that the fact can be established that the six cases were all one tried at the same time, and that Langerman divided up the cases on this docket, making the cases separate and on different days.

The community of Pima was called to mourn the death of one of its estimable citizens—Phileman C. Merrill, Jr., last Friday, Oct. 29th, 1897, who was suddenly stricken down on Tuesday with stricture of the bowels. Dr. Wrightman being called, everything that could be done was promptly attended to, but after consultation with Dr. Green it was found to be too late for an operation and he quietly passed away about 1 o'clock. He was the oldest son of Patricia P. C. Merrill and Cyrena Durbin Merrill of Layton, Hancock county, Ill.; went to Salt Lake City with his parents in 1849; was always a frontiersman, coming to Arizona with his wife and family in June, 1880. After living on the San Pedro for nine years, he moved to Pima, where, as a good citizen, kind friend, loving husband and father he lived till his death.—Safford Guardian.

POINTS ABOUT PEOPLE.

General Neal Dow left on will. His property is estimated at $350,000.

Mr. Ruskin has written some sixty-four books and his publisher pays him $20,000 a year.

Abraham Crabb, the old Confederate soldier who shot and killed General Sedgwick at Spotsylvania court house, has just died at his home in Virginia.

The princess of Wales' favorite flower is the lily of the valley, and the largest grower of these flowers in Great Britain has his garden near Sandringham.

While an American actress, Miss Rehan is Irish both by birth and descent, her father having been a Lime-rick ship builder, and she herself born in that famous Shannon city.

Mme. Calve has arrived in Paris and has gone actively to work on the rehearsals for Massenet's new opera, "Sapho," at the Opera Comique, where she is to create the title role before long.

Henry Mills Alden, who, though his name does not appear on the title page, is the editor of Harper's Magazine, has held his position since 1869. He has written two books, "God in His World" and "A Study in Death."

The Kansas state board of printing has refused to print the address of William Allen White of Emporia, which he delivered at the opening of the state university, probably because Mr. White has said so many severe things about populists.

The late George M. Pullman, creator and president of the Pullman Palace Car company, gave $100,000 to the art museum in Jackson park, Chicago, presented to the city a bronze group of statuary, and gave to the city of Pullman, which he founded, many thousand volumes for its public library.

GLOBE SIGHTS.

(From the Atchison Globe.)

You can't make a boy smart by naming him for a president.

A boy has his best time when no attempt is made to entertain him.

An Atchison girl named Mary Barry, now spells her name Marie Y. Bunnios, in deference to the Cuban craze.

The more a careless man tries to introduce order into his affairs, the more hopelessly he becomes entangled.

Having never married, changed her occupation, or died, a certain Atchison woman doesn't know if she is popular or not.

It is easy for a woman to win a place where she will be long and tenderly remembered; all she has to do is to be generous in cutting pie for the boys.

A satisfaction in not being a member of any lodge or society is found in the fact that a man thus misses any resolutions being passed upon his death.

An Atchison girl is so bashful that her mother is much worried for fear she will be left on her hands; she will never get up enough courage to propose.

It is a clever man who can write a satisfactory obituary, but it requires greater genius to write a satisfactory notice of a wedding. We never knew a man who could do either.

It is said, to console a man when he loses his money, that he is now in position to find out who are his friends. That is no consolation; a man is happiest when he doesn't have to know who his friends are.
